

GKD at ACHEMA:

Integrated process belt expertise for key industries

Picture 1: The new spiral belts from GKD are currently setting previously unequalled standards in special food industry applications.

Picture 2: Filter belts from the VACUBELT® product range from GKD surpass the performance of conventional filter belts.

Picture 3: Trackmetic™ belts made of highly tempered stainless steels impress with their hygienic safety when coming into contact with foodstuffs.

Picture 4: GKD offers the belt 1003 now with an integrated wear indicator to provide greater assistance in determining mechanical abrasion.
